

LotusCare Services — Draft Holding Statement (Internal Use)

LotusCare Services is aware of claims circulating online regarding a cyber security incident.

We are investigating the matter as a priority with the assistance of specialist advisors.

At this time, we have not confirmed that personal information has been accessed.

We will continue to provide updates as our assessment progresses.

This statement is a draft and must not be released without executive approval.